Fees and Charges

RESIDENTIAL CARE

RAD

Refundable Accommodation Deposit – a lump sum style accommodation payment. The balance of the deposit is refunded when you leave the residential care less any amounts you have agreed to have deducted.

DAP

Daily Accommodation Payment: Government set at the Maximum Permissible Interest Rate (MPIR) of 8.34% – instead of paying for your accommodation as a lump sum you can choose to pay a daily amount, as agreed with your service provider. Daily Accommodation Payments, unless you have paid in advance, are non-refundable once you leave the residential care.

Hospitality Fee

A daily charge that allows for additional weekly entertainment and an extended range of meal choices.

Depending on individual financial circumstances, a fee of $10 or $18 per day is charged for the Hospitality Fee. A fee of $5 per day will apply to all fully supported residents. The fee may be exempt for some individuals based on their income and asset levels.

Combination Payment

A one-off lump sum payment that is less than the total accommodation cost (RAD) and then smaller ongoing payments (DAP) to make up the difference.

MPIR

Maximum Permissible Interest Rate.

Basic Daily Fee

Set by the Government, covers daily living costs such as meals, heating and cooling, and laundry. Currently the Basic Daily Care Fee is $61.96 per day.

Means Tested Care Fee

Set by the Government based on an assessment of your personal income and assets.
